Ministry of Defence Annual Report and Accounts 2012-13 2022 For the sixth successive year, the Ministry of Defence Accounts were qualified. The Qualifications covered non-compliance with international reporting standards on the treatment of some contracts; lack of audit evidence on the valuation of inventory (worth some £3 billion) and of capital spares (worth some £7 billion); and on the regularity of the Accounts because of the failure to obtain approval for the remuneration package of the Chief of Defence Materiel.
MoD was also five months late in submitting its audited accounts to Parliament. The National Audit Office found errors in its sample examination of accruals and so the MoD decided to resolve these problems before submitting the accounts. The MoD said they did not have the necessary expertise to manage the financial complexity that featured in the implementation of the Strategic Defence and Security Review so sought
The MoD should ensure its people have the right skills to deal with all financial problems so that they to bring in expensive external accountants. There is also concern about the MoD's reluctance to estimate the costs of its operations in Afghanistan, Iraq and Libya. The NAO did not consider that the MoD has adequate information, especially with respect to recording the cost of its activities and outputs, to run its business effectively. The MoD should set out its commitment to improving its management information. It is also noted that defence spending remains at more than 2 per cent of GDP in line with the UK's NATO commitment.

Proceedings of the Parliament of South Australia 2020

Formula 1 Oct 27 2019 One of the hardest fought Formula 1 World Championships of recent years ended in Brazil, where Sebastian Vettel and Red Bull won the drivers' and constructors' world titles respectively for a third consecutive year. Ferrari, competitive until mid-season, had to be content with Fernando Alonso's second place in the end. On the technical front, the 2012 world championship will be remembered for the large rear wing intakes in the noses of many of the cars, their purpose to recover aerodynamic load; then there were the sophisticated F-Ducts created by Mercedes-Benz and the pull rod front suspension layout designed by Williams. In this well-established publication, author, designer and television commentator Giorgio Piola analyses the development phases of the different teams during the world championship. Brief but exhaustive texts and illustrations with hundreds of technical designs in full colour are the main elements of this book, which concludes with a section on the cars that will be the protagonists of the 2013 season.

A decade of Australian general practice activity 2003-04 to 2012-13 This report highlights changes in general practice activity in Australia over the most recent decade (April 2003 to March 2013) of the program, a national cross-sectional study of general practice activity. Over this time 9,772 GPs provided 977,200 GP-patient encounters. The report highlights changes that have occurred over the decade in the characteristics of GPs and the patients they see, the problems managed, and the treatments provided. The prevalence of overweight and obesity, smoking status and alcohol use are also described for subsamples of more than 30,000 adult patients each year.
